Psychic, Social, and Eco-Decolonization for the Commons-to-be

Mary Watkins, Ph.D.
Community Psychology, Liberation Psychology, and Ecopsychology Program
Pacifica Graduate Institute
Carpinteria, CA

"Building the City," John August Swanson
Creative Imagination for the Commons

Mural on the wall of a highschool in the Zapatista caracol, Resistance and Rebellion for Humanity/ Resistencia y Rebeldía por la Humanidad, Oventik, MX
The Enclosure and Recovery of the Commons

Dr Vandana Shiva
Abhraj H. Jaff
Gitanjali Bedi
Radha Heela-Bhar
Necessity of Dialogue for the Recovery of the Commons

“Diálogo,” Rufino Tamayo
Liberation Psychologist Ignacio Martín-Baró
Practices for the Recovery of the Commons

- Dialogue
- Gratitude
- Appreciative Inquiry
- Conscientization, Critical Consciousness
- Crafting Generative Questions
- Community Visioning, Annunciation
- Horizontality/ Horizontalidad
- Consensus Building
- Attention to Deep Democracy
- Attunement of Our Needs to the Needs of Others and Nature
Community Dreaming of the Deeply Desired

Copy of a mural in Taniperla, MX, that was destroyed by paramilitaries, and re-painted on the Mexican side of the U.S. wall at the border, Nogales, Arizona, USA

“The Life and Dreams of Taniperla Ravine” imagines the peaceful and just future that is desired in Chiapas, Mexico.
U.S. wall at the U.S.-Mexico Border, Tijuana, MX

Confronting Limit Situations, and Imagining Limit Acts